It becomes more amazing from day to day at the extent of cooperation that we receive from everyone at the Base in making our stay at Wright-Patt so enjoyable.

Wednesday noon saw a Birthday Party held for nine members of the Cadet Corps in the Mess Hall with Lt Col Franklin Dooley acting as host representing the Base.

A beautiful birthday cake, decorated with the names of the following members was displayed and then served to all members. . . .

A very HAPPY BIRTHDAY to everyone having birthdays during the Encampment and after the ENCAMPMENT and a great BIG THANKS to the Base personnel for giving us such a warm welcome.

YOU GET MORE OUT OF CAP WHEN YOU GET OUT TO CAP MORE

HE MADE A RULE TO WIN SUCCESS, HE TRIED TO KEEP IT IN HIS HEART.
IT'S SOMETHING ANYONE CAN DO; JUST FINISH EVERYTHIN YOU START.

It was in the wee small hours in the barracks, and the phone was ringing persistently. Captain Mellinger roused himself and staggered sleepily to answer it. It turned out to be the wrong barracks and the caller was duly apologetic.

"Think nothing of it!" said Capt Mellinger. "I had to get up to answer the phone anyway."

ATTENTION ALL SENIORS . . . Don't forget to make plans to attend the next two conferences that are coming up very soon. The Great Lakes Regional to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio 25-27 Sept and the Ohio Wing Conference in Mansfield, Ohio 7-8 November. Both of these conferences should be attended by every Senior member.

Alexander Pope: "A man should never be ashamed to admit that he has been wrong which is but saying, that he is wiser today than he was yesterday."

DID YOU KNOW that after retreat ceremonies on Tuesday evening, a number of seniors could be found back of the Senior Hqs getting a few instructions in which is the right and left foot. If you don't know what we mean evidently you weren't at retreat, and if you weren't at retreat, why weren't you, says the Old Man.

. . . . that CAP has just found a new tradition for it's summer encampment? While waiting for chow formation, the various squadrons serenade each other. The songs include everything from Squadron songs to excerpts from "Mad Magazine."

Wednesday noon, Sqdn "C" sent seniors and cadets into fits of laughter with the "Garbage and Collectors Chanty" and several other parodies. It is rumored that Squadron "C" will repeat this performance at the Variety Show. -Karl Burkhardt-

Weary of the routine and pay, a circus performer whose act consisted of being shot from a gun twice a day, informed the boss that he was quitting.

"You can't do that to us," protested the boss. "We need you. You see, we can't find another man of your caliber!"

FATHER HUGH WAGNER

In your charity, please offer a brief prayer for Chaplain (Major) Hugh Wagner who is a patient at Good Samaritan Hospital. Father Wagner, Chaplain of Group VII, has been ill for several weeks and is still far from complete recovery. His mailing address is Good Samaritan Hospital, 1425 W. Farview, Dayton, Ohio and he will welcome a card from any member of CAP.

. . . . that Major Schaffner tells us that Capt George Cryder is going to write a book on "How not to get a parking ticket in one easy lesson"? The first chapter will begin by suggesting that you borrow someone else's car. Nuf Sed.

. . . . that Cadet Major Gallaway, the cadet GP Adm has been adopted by Squadron "G" recently? This gives him the privilege of carrying the "G" Squadron guidon from the Mees Hall when they win the Honor Squadron Ribbon. This is not a move to influence the Cadet Group Inspection team as Major Gallaway is not a member of the inspection team.

. . . . that a certain Capt has been trying to waste the taxpayer's money by having his cadets dig-up the blacktop with their heels? Could it be the CO of "A".

-Cadet Steve Boccieri-

A boy friend of a Palm Springs wealthy matron was dragged unconscious from her pool. She got in the way of the rescuer, who brushed her aside with, "I've got to give him artificial respiration."

"Artificial respiration," she screamed, "nonsense." Give him the real thing, I can afford it."

. . . . that what you don't know may not hurt you. . . but what you suspect can be awfully disturbing?

. . . . that a certain cadet in "A" Squadron Flight "B" is known as "Pony-tail?"

CAMP NEWS COVERAGE

Cadet coverage of Encampment news is very important and it requires the cooperation of each member to make our SCOOP SHEET and BROCHURE of interest to everyone.

It will only take a minute of your time and it will be painless, so be sure to contact your Squadron ISO and give him items of interest about your Squadron, your Squadron members or yourself.

The CAP SCOOP SHEET is YOUR paper and the extent of your participation will determine just how interesting it will be. Your ISO Squadron reporters are . .

Squadron "A" Boccieri, Steve

Squadron "B" Pooppe, Chick

Squadron "C" Schwartz, Bob

Squadron "D" Baker, Paul

Squadron "E" Ohler, Frank

Squadron "F" Rhodes, Dan

Squadron "G" Roach, Sandy

Squadron "H" Cibulka, Edwina

Chaplain Eisemann came to us very well recommended as being able to wrestle with Ol Demon Satan and everyone who attended the Judo class on Monday evening will testify to his prowess. He not only can throw the Devil himself but he can also take care of mortal man. If you don't believe it, ask CWO Taylor.

At the time, it was no laughing matter and we are happy to report that it was only a pinched nerve and CWO Taylor is as good as new.

Squadron "D" has a 6 man drill team and a volleyball that would like to challenge any other squadron on their free time.

-Paul Baker-

Competition for Honor Squadron is a close race all the way. "H" Sqdn won the honors Sunday; "C" Sqdn, Monday and "E" Sqdn, Tuesday. With all of the Sqdns polishing the floors, drilling, cleaning uniforms, drilling, shining shoes, drilling, etc, drilling anything can happen.

-Bob Schwartz-

PROTESTANT EVENING FELLOWSHIP . . . Beginning at 1800 thru 1830 hours on Wednesday evening, 19 August 1959, a brief worship service will be held in the Sherwood Area Chapel. Following the worship period, Chaplain Eisemann will lead a discussion on the subject "Love and Marriage". All cadets and senior members are invited to attend if they choose.

Fortune Teller: " Prepare yourself - your husband is about to die a violent death."

Wifey; " Will I be acquitted?"

Squadron "C" would be interested in competing with other sqdns in athletic events. For further information contact either the cadet or senior Sqdn CO.

"Editors note: "How about Sqdn "D"? They're ready.

-Bob Schwartz-

In radio class during a routine fire and area inspection, I spotted a young lady cadet so ingrossed in her work that she was lying on her tummy studying her work. . . which proves that summer encampment is an enjoyable and worthwhile part of CAP. Also each Squadron takes pride in their areas and some Sqdn Exec and COs help police their barracks. "That's "ESPRIT DE CORPS."

-CWO Taylor, Senior-
